Moderately ( $\text{♩} = 100$ )

Music score for Ensemble Score, page 2. The score consists of ten staves: Voice, Flute, Clarinet (B<sub>b</sub>), Alto Sax (E<sub>b</sub>), Tenor Sax. (B<sub>b</sub>), Trumpet (B<sub>b</sub>), Trombone, Violin, Bass, and Piano.

The vocal line (Voice) starts with a melodic line in D major, followed by lyrics in Hebrew: "Od na-shu-va el ni-gun a-tik". The piano accompaniment begins with a sustained note in D major. The key changes to C major (Cm) for the second section of the vocal line, which continues with lyrics: "v'-ha-ze-meryif v'-ye-e-".

The score includes dynamic markings such as  $f$  (fortissimo) for the Bass staff and  $D$  above the piano staff, indicating a different tempo or dynamic for that section.
